

FAQ's (Frequently Asked Questions)

about the

Crandall-Acadia Bachelor of Theology (B.Th.) Partnership

Q. How is it possible to get two full degrees in 4 or years?

A. The key is in the number of courses that count toward both degrees. We have planned this program so that a significant number of courses overlap between Crandall and ADC requirements.

Q. How much extra does it cost to take the B.Th. along with another Crandall degree?

A. The only extra costs are the tuition for four spring courses (taken directly from Acadia Divinity College) after years 1 and 2, and after year 3, and the international mission experience. The costs for this will be no more than $400 per course and the actual cost of the mission trip.

Q. Does a B. Th. Prepare me for vocational ministry?

A. This is a very solid foundational degree for those who want to work in ministry positions, but does not specifically prepare you for vocational ministry. However, it is a solid foundation for those who go on to do a Master of Divinity

Q. Where will I study if I am accepted into this program?

A. Most of your study will happen at Crandall, but in the spring term after your first and third years you will spend two weeks studying at Acadia University.

Q. Does this degree prepare me for further study?

A. Absolutely! The unique combination of this degree and the Crandall degree you will graduate with will be a solid foundation for many options for further study.

Q. Do I really get an Acadia degree as well as one from Crandall?

A. For sure! You will participate in graduation activities at both Crandall and Acadia!

Q. How is it possible for me to get two degrees for such a low price?

A. The two schools both have a solid commitment to discipleship and training young leaders. Because of this common interest they have worked out a tuition-sharing agreement that makes the low cost possible!

Q. What are the entrance requirements for this degree?

A. You need to have an 80% average on English 12-2 and four additional grade 12 academic level courses.

Q. Practical Question – where do I pay my tuition?

A. Easy Answer - You pay all of your tuition to Crandall except the extra amount for the spring courses in the spring of years one and three.

Q. Who is the Director of this program?

A. Dale Stairs. He has a wealth of experience in youth ministry and is currently doing his PhD in the area of discipleship.

Q. What Extra classes do I take to complete the B.Th.?

A. The B.Th. courses that are specifically ADC courses (not normally available to other Crandall students) are: History of Christianity, Christian Spiritual Formation, Intro Praxis*, Theology and Practice of Short Term Mission, Mission Praxis*, Christian Theology 1&2, Youth and Family Ministry, Theology and Practice of Worship, Christian Camping and Children's Ministry, Old Testament 2, Christian Ethics, Junior Praxis*, New Testament 2, Evangelism and Mission, and Senior Praxis*.

(Praxis* courses are practical learning opportunities that involve students in intensive serving within community service and ministry organizations)
