CHANCELLOR'S GREETINGS

To the class of 2026,

Your graduation signifies a defining moment in your life and academic journey.

We are so very proud of each of you and today wish to recognize your hard work and dedication. No one reaches this moment without great resilience, strong determination, and an unwavering commitment to their goals. You have overcome the challenges, embraced the opportunities, and have grown in ways you may not have thought possible.

The knowledge and skills that you have acquired will serve you well, and they will enable you to find your God-given purpose and to attain your dreams. Trusting Him as your anchor will enable you to be bold in your pursuits and to embrace uncertainty with courage.

Our success is best measured through the collective impact our students make – after they graduate. As transformers of our world through the values of our Christian faith, we will watch expectantly as you inspire, innovate, work and lead with integrity. May your achievements be marked by the difference you make and the lives you touch.

Congratulations!

Donald E. Simmonds
Chancellor

PRESIDENT'S GREETINGS

Graduates of Spring 2026,

It is my great pleasure to congratulate the Spring 2026 graduates on their significant achievement today and to acknowledge the support and encouragement that they have received from their family and friends! Graduates, it has taken a lot of hard work and dedication to reach this milestone in your life. Well done! I am confident that God will be with you to guide and lead you in the years to come, and we are looking forward to hearing about your next steps in life.

As we celebrate today, I also want to note with deep appreciation the dedication of your professors and staff who have served you during your studies at Crandall. I am very grateful for their investment in you and for their hard work and commitment to giving you the best university experience possible. We all join together in wishing you the best as you leave Crandall and begin your next chapter!

Bruce Fawcett ('88) Ph.D.
President and Vice Chancellor

HONORARY DOCTORATE RECIPIENT

SHAILA VISSER

Shaila Visser is the National Director of Alpha Canada and the Global Senior Vice-President of Alpha International. A strategic and visionary leader, she is deeply committed to evangelism and to equipping the Church to confidently and creatively share the hope of Jesus in every generation.

Shaila served as Co-Executive Producer of the Alpha Film Series (2016) - the cornerstone video resource for the Alpha Course and the Alpha Youth Film Series (2013, 2017), now used in over 100 countries. Through these globally influential resources, she has helped shape tools that have impacted millions around the world. She also serves on the Board of the Damascus Road Foundation.

A hope-filled and future-oriented leader, Shaila exists to activate people and ideas toward bold, transformational impact. Passionate about the rising generation, Shaila longs to see young people encounter Jesus in a personal and transformative way. Known for her clarity, warmth, and conviction, she brings leaders together across generations and church traditions, fostering unity while helping the Church engage meaningfully in today's culture.

Rooted in her vibrant Anglo-Indian heritage, Shaila values diversity, hospitality, and mentoring the next generation. She lives in Vancouver with her husband Ryan, a Vancouver Police Officer, and their two dogs, Talon and Benny. In her free time, she enjoys reading, hosting people in her home, and pursuing personal growth in health and fitness.

CONVOCATION SPEAKER – THURSDAY, MAY 7

RICKY A. CHRISTMAN

Dr. Ricky Christman brings a wealth of experience in pastoral ministry, academic instruction, and executive leadership. Prior to serving as President of Kingswood University, he served at Columbia International University in South Carolina as Executive Vice President for six years and for 15 months as Interim President.

Having served for over 20 years in both teaching and administrative responsibilities, Dr. Christman has a well-rounded and deeply rooted understanding of Christian higher education. Prior to his leadership at CIU, he served as Dean and Associate Vice President at Trevecca Nazarene University, Vice President of Academics and Student Services at Ohio Christian University, and Associate Director for the Center for Life Calling and Leadership at Indiana Wesleyan University.

Rick's call to ministry was affirmed while he was a student at God's Bible School and College in Cincinnati, Ohio, where he earned his B.A. in Religious Education. He also earned an M.A. in Advanced Leadership Studies, an M.A. in Ministry, and his Ed.D. in Organizational Leadership from Indiana Wesleyan University.

Dr. Christman leads with a passionate, yet challenging voice, caring for both the institution he serves and those who serve with him. He understands the critical need for organizational vision and entrepreneurial leadership within Christian higher education and the need to preserve and instill Christian values and ideals within students from all walks of life.

Rick and his wife, Cheri Manning Christman, have been married 41 years. They have three children and nine grandchildren.

THE COAT OF ARMS OF CRANDALL UNIVERSITY

The design closely follows that of the arms used by Crandall University's predecessor body, Atlantic Baptist College (later Atlantic Baptist University). The cross at the centre of the shield refers to the centrality of the Christian faith in the mission and history of the institution since its founding in 1949, as well as in the teachings of the Reverend Joseph Crandall (1771-1858), a pioneering figure in the Baptist movement in this region and the University's namesake. The open book represents the Bible. The rays of light indicate light shining down from God and then rising back as a reflection of His glory. The descending dove symbolizes the Holy Spirit. The torch, which symbolizes the fullness of the Holy Spirit, was the principal symbol on the seal adopted in 1899 by the Foreign Mission Board of the Baptist Convention of the Maritime Provinces. The waves symbolize Atlantic Canada.

The apple tree recalls the orchard that once stood on the present site of the University. It also recalls the group of Baptists who, in 1763, established a settlement on the Tantramar region of what became New Brunswick in order to "plant a new church." The green colour of the apples symbolizes hope. The horses symbolize the pioneering pastors and itinerant preachers, including Joseph Crandall, who travelled by horse, to establish new churches in many communities. The horses depicted here are Canadian horses, a breed recognized as an official symbol of Canada, and which were used extensively in the early history of the region. The compartment on which the horses stand refers to the land and sea of Atlantic Canada. The wild roses are a common flower in the region. They are chosen to illustrate the passionate leadership of Joseph Crandall, who commented in his autobiography of his work: "Truly the wilderness blossomed like the rose."

CHRISTUS PRÆEMINENS, translated as "Christ preeminent," is inspired by Colossians 1:18: "And he is the head of the body, the church; who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead; that in all things He might have the preeminence."

REGALIA

Academic dress or regalia is worn by all participants at Convocation.

Chancellor: The Chancellor is the highest ranking honorary official of the University, and the individual who officially presides over the Convocation ceremonies. The gown of the Chancellor is crafted in the official colours of the University: the pilgrim cloth gown is blue to represent faith and wisdom, and the piping is gold to represent purity. The three gold chevrons on the sleeve denote the rank of the Chancellor as the senior honorary official of the University.

President and Vice Chancellor: The President and Vice Chancellor is the highest ranking official of the University, and the Chief Executive Officer of the institution. Accordingly, the gown of the President and Vice Chancellor is crafted in colours complementary to that of the Chancellor; the pilgrim cloth is, again, blue to represent faith and wisdom, and the piping is silver to represent truth. The three silver chevrons on the sleeve denote the rank of the President and Vice Chancellor as the senior official of the University.

Faculty: All members of the faculty, and other platform guests who don regalia, are dressed in the academic regalia appropriate to the institutions from which they hold their highest degrees.

Degree hoods adorn the shoulders of the graduands, and they symbolize the completion of their degree requirements. The ceremonial hoods are colour-coded to identify the field of study.

GRADUAND OR GRADUATE? WHAT IS THE DIFFERENCE?

During the graduation ceremony, you will hear the words graduand and graduate.

A graduand is someone who is about to graduate.

A graduate is someone who has already done so.

Our students will begin the ceremony as graduands and conclude it as graduates. We are incredibly proud of each one!

CONVOCATION AWARD

The Dr. Dannie Brown Graduate School of Management Award

The Graduate Studies Award in Management is presented to a student chosen from all cohorts participating in a convocation. A student is selected to receive this award through a three-level selection process. Nominations and votes are collected from all of the students in the participating cohorts, from any of the instructors who taught any of the cohorts in question, as well as from administration. The recipient of the award is chosen on the basis of leadership and contribution to cohort, to Crandall University, and to the community-at-large.

WORSHIP APPRENTICESHIP

Worship plays a vital role in student life at Crandall. Worship services, from weekly chapels to special events on and off campus, take place throughout the school year. Student involvement is essential to making these both successful and meaningful for the whole community. The Worship Apprenticeship is an opportunity for Crandall students to lead and contribute to this ministry while developing their gifts and pursuing their degree.

As a co-curricular program, the Worship Apprenticeship helps students foster Christ-focused and Spirit-led worship for the glory of God at Crandall University and associated ministries, identify and cultivate God-given gifts in the Worship Arts, and grow in Christian character, while developing the ability and desire to contribute significantly to worship ministry wherever the Lord leads them.

Thank you to these graduating students for their excellent contributions to student life at Crandall University through the Worship Apprenticeship:

AFTER THE CEREMONY

APPRECIATION

Sincere appreciation is extended to those who have contributed to this Convocation ceremony. In so doing, you have sought to make it a very special event in the lives of the graduates of Crandall University. Your participation is essential to today's success.

To those whom we honour today, our Spring 2026 graduates, we offer our sincere appreciation for permitting us the privilege of being a part of your lives. Your presence at Crandall University has allowed us to dream of the future through your eyes. You have enriched us by your presence. Our prayer for each of you is that you may know the Lord's leading in your future endeavours, and that you will be constantly aware of His presence in your life as you enrich the lives of others.

BOOKSTORE

Crandall University's Bookstore, located in Stultz Hall 203, will be open two hours following each ceremony. It will be closed during the ceremonies.

DEGREE FRAMES

You've worked hard for your degree, so why not show it off? Showcase your academic accomplishments with certificate and diploma frames. A selection of five handcrafted Canadian frames matted with Crandall University's logo will be on sale in Stultz Hall 117 after the ceremony. Today only, degree frames are tax-free.

GRAD RINGS

Rings are available to order at the Crandall Bookstore or online at jostens.com.

E-NEWSLETTER

Grads, family, and friends – want to stay up-to-date with all that is happening on and around the Crandall campus? Sign up for our e-newsletter, and we will send monthly updates directly to your inbox. The updates feature Crandall news, events, alumni features, and prayer requests. Sign up today at crandallu.ca/e-newsletter.

Another way to stay connected is follow Crandall University Alumni on Facebook and Instagram

GREETINGS FROM ALUMNI RELATIONS

YOU'VE WORKED HARD FOR YOUR DEGREE. LET'S CELEBRATE!

Those years of hard work, perseverance, and many, many cups of coffee have finally paid off. Did you know that there are over 8,000 people in the Crandall alumni family? You are joining a community of ambitious, faithful, influential, and passionate leaders.

HISTORY OF CRANDALL UNIVERSITY

Following the second World War, the leadership of the United Baptist Convention of the Maritime Provinces felt that the time was right to address their concern that young people who were leaving the region to train for vocational Christian ministry were not returning. To address this issue, the United Baptist Bible Training School was founded in Moncton, New Brunswick in 1949. The school began as a Bible institute and then a few years later added a residential high school program because many prospective students who wanted to attend were from rural areas where young people did not have access to a high school education. For the next two decades, students came from all over Atlantic Canada and beyond to learn in a Christian context and to live in a Christian community. Academic excellence very quickly became a hallmark of the new school, and many people gave sacrificially to help expand the facilities and the programs. By 1968, high schools were being established across rural Atlantic Canada and the school transitioned to a Christian Junior Liberal Arts College to meet the educational needs of a new era. In 1970, the name was changed to Atlantic Baptist College to reflect this new direction.

In 1983, the New Brunswick Legislature passed legislation granting Atlantic Baptist College a charter and gave the College the authority to offer baccalaureate degrees. By 1996, the growing College moved from its original Salisbury Road campus to a new 200-acre campus on the Gorge Road on land donated by Mrs. Ruth Colburne. In the same year, the original Act of the Legislature was amended to change the name of the College to Atlantic Baptist University. This was done to reflect the continued growth and development of the University which by then was granting undergraduate degrees in Arts, Business, and Science and in the following years added bachelor degrees in Education and Organizational Management.

In 2008, and again in 2010, slight amendments to the Act were made to permit the awarding of degrees beyond the baccalaureate level and to change the name to Crandall University in honour of Joseph Crandall, who founded several Baptist churches in the greater Moncton area in the mid-1800s. This new name was also intended to more clearly offer an invitation into the Crandall community to all prospective students and supporters who were not from a Baptist tradition. In 2010, the University opened the new Stultz Hall academic building. In 2012, it opened the new Mitton Court apartment building to augment the existing Colburne House residence and Murray Hall in order to accommodate the continued growth of the student body.

In 2013, the University began to offer graduate degrees in Organizational Management and Education. By 2020, a Master of Management was added. Through this development the University witnessed a significant increase in enrollment from both domestic and international graduate students. Along with the growth in the student body, the size of the staff continued to increase as did the size and breadth of the faculty. At the same time, the University has maintained small class sizes to preserve the individual attention and friendly and supportive spirit which it has always valued. Over 300 undergraduate scholarships were added and the number of athletic teams increased as Crandall students travelled to compete regionally, nationally, and internationally.

LYRICS

O CANADA

O Canada!
Our home and native land!
True patriot love in all of us command.

Car ton bras sait porter l'épée,
Il sait porter la croix!
Ton histoire est une épopée
Des plus brilliants exploits.

God keep our land glorious and free!
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.

CROWN HIM WITH MANY CROWNS

Tune: DIADEMATA/George Elvey

Crown Him with many crowns
The Lamb upon His throne;
Hark! how the heavenly anthem drowns
All music but its own.
Awake, my soul, and sing
Of Him who died for thee,
And hail Him as thy matchless King
Through all eternity.

Crown Him the Lord of life
Who triumphed o'er the grave,
And rose victorious in the strife
For those He came to save;
His glories now we sing
Who died, and rose on high,
Who died eternal life to bring,
And lives that death may die.

...THAT IN ALL THINGS HE MIGHT HAVE THE PREEMINENCE
