Crandall's Christian Environment

Students at Crandall University are encouraged to make responsible decisions about their lifestyles and beliefs. At the same time, they are part of a Christian community which includes certain expectations regarding the way in which we live our lives together - expectations which are academic, social and personal. Students are required to attend chapel, and are encouraged to participate in community activities aimed at promoting personal growth. Additional information on community life standards are available in Crandall University's Student Handbook or from the Student Development Department.
