The Atlantic Chamber of Commerce (ACC) is pleased to announce that Terry Malley was sworn in as the organization's chair during their 120th annual general meeting held in Moncton today.

Born and raised in Moncton, Terry is President and CEO of Malley Industries Inc., one of Canada's premier manufacturers of ambulances, vehicles for persons with disabilities, commercial vehicles and specialized law enforcement vehicles.

Terry also serves on the Canadian Space Agency Advisory Board, the Advisory Board of the UNB Faculty of Business Administration and the UNB (IBEC) International Business and Entrepreneurship Centre. He is also a Director of the Canadian Manufacturers and Exporters (NB Division) and sits on the National Board among others.

Recognized numerous times for his contribution to business and entrepreneurship, Terry was five times named one of Atlantic Canada's Top 50 CEOs by Atlantic Business Magazine and was inducted into the Atlantic Business CEO Top 50 Hall of Fame.

"We look forward to working with Terry in the year ahead," stated Valerie Roy, CEO of the Atlantic Chamber of Commerce. "We are very fortunate to have a person of Terry's caliber at the head of our organization and are confident that with his leadership, we will continue to be a strong, credible and unified voice for business in Atlantic Canada."
