Eligibility:

- You must be in good academic standing. A letter of permission will not be granted to a student required to withdraw and normally will not be granted to a student on Academic Probation.
- You must not exceed the total allowable course load, including both Letter of Permission courses and Crandall University courses, in any given semester.
- You must not exceed the maximum number of hours accepted for transfer from another institution. See the Transfer Students section of the Academic Calendar.
- You must not have an outstanding balance owing on your Crandall University account.
- You must fulfil any admission requirements and/or prerequisites as stated by the host institution. Completion of this form does not guarantee admission to the host institution.
- You are responsible for any tuition and other expenses related to the courses listed below.

Instructions:

- Submit the completed Letter of Permission form to the Registrar's Office at Crandall University before you register at the host institution. Courses taken without prior permission may not be eligible for transfer.
- For each course listed, a detailed course description or web-based source (URL) describing the course must be submitted with this form.
- A separate form is required for each institution. You must not place courses from different institutions on the same form.
- Approved Letters of Permission are valid for one academic year.

Grades:

- Once the course is completed, you must have an official transcript forwarded from the host institution to the Registrar's Office at Crandall University.
- Courses are only transferable to Crandall University if the mark received meets the criteria for transfer as outlined in the Transfer Students and Programs sections of the Academic Calendar.

Graduation:

- If the courses listed below are taken in the semester you plan to graduate, the grades must be received no later than the date term marks are due in the Registrar's Office for that semester. See the Academic Schedule section of the Academic Calendar.
